Historical Information

The Allied offensive in north-western Europe began with the Normandy landings of 6th June 1044.

For the most part, the men buried at Banneville-la-Campagne War Cemetery were killed in the fighting from the second week of July 1944, when Caen was captured, to the last week of August, when the Falaise Gap had been closed and Allied forces were preparing their advance beyond the Seine.

The cemetery contains 2,170 Commonwealth burial of the Second World War. 140 of them unidentified, and five Polish graves.
